Gaelic News: Air Diardaoin chaidh Marsaili, Cailean agus Mrs Murphy gu Latha Dreuchdan Gaidhlig. Dh'eist sinn gu failte bho Kim Carnie ceoladair agus preasantair agus sgoilear aig Mrs Murphy. Dh'innis I mu dheidhinn na cothroman a fhuair I troimh Gaidhlig. Cuideachd chuala sinn an sgioba tradiseanta is bha Domhnall Aonghas a cluich an fhidheall. As deidh sin fhuair Marsaili turas air culaibh an camera aig a BBC agus dh'obair Cailean am fuaim.

At the Gaelic Careers Day we heard how Kim, a former pupil of Mrs Murphy, used her Gaelic to become a singer and presenter on De a Nis. We listened to the traditional music group and Domhnall Aonghas was playing the fiddle. Marsaili got a turn working a BBC camera and Cailean worked the microphone and sound.

Primary 1-3 News: The Primary 1-3 class have been learning more about how plastic affects the sea and marine life. The class are working well to create two SCUBA divers and the gloves in this photo were being formed to add effect.

Monday morning was a very productive one where the whole school tidied the school grounds. The piles of dirt brushed together over the weekend (from the Busy Bee) was disposed of, paths swept, kerbs weeded, plants watered and litter collected. The children worked extremely well together proving that "many hands make light work". Well done everyone!!

Please find attached thank you letters written by pupils to those who helped with the Busy Bee tidy. The letters linked in to their literacy learning of functional writing. They also furthered their ICT learning by taking photographs of how the school now looks and placing them with their letter.
